West Virginia’s Expanded School Mental Health Initiative

WVDE and DHHR Partnership
WV Department of Education and Bureau for Behavioral Health, Children’s Division

Expanded School Mental Health Steering Team
Representative of various stakeholder groups including child-serving state and local agencies, public health, state and local education agencies, families and faith-based organizations.

Marshall University¹
Technological assistance, evaluation, data collection and analysis, consultation, staff support

Marketing and Communications Team

Quality and Best Practices Team

Infrastructure and Accountability Team

ESMH Network
- All interested stakeholders
  Regular updates and input, annual state/regional meeting, participation on action teams

¹ School Health Technical Assistance and Evaluation Center, RC Byrd Center for Rural Health, Marshall University

For more information: www.schoolmentalhealthwv.org